

The University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) and the Latina Task Force of Partnered for Progress
Announce a Research Study:

Latina Breast Cancer Survivors: Our Experience

Are you Latina?

Have you been diagnosed with breast cancer?

Are you 6 months to 5 years after diagnosis?

If you answered YES to all of the above,
you may be able to take part in a project on Latinas' experiences with breast cancer care.

You will receive $50 for:

Answering some questions about yourself, and Talking about your experiences with other breast cancer survivors for up to 2 hours.

This is voluntary, and all information will be kept confidential. The information given will be used to put together programs and services that will help other Latinas.

To learn more about the project, please call Jenifer at
